PROFILE

Ali Butt is a Senior Musculoskeletal Physiotherapist at Physio Matters, with specialist expertise in the assessment and treatment of musculoskeletal conditions, sports injuries, and persistent pain. He holds both a Doctorate in Physiotherapy and a Master's degree in Advanced Physiotherapy, combining academic depth with clinical experience.

Ali's approach is grounded in a detailed understanding of anatomy, biomechanics, and movement science. He uses advanced manual therapy techniques to address restrictions in muscles and fascia, aiming to resolve the underlying causes of pain and dysfunction. His treatment plans are tailored to each individual, incorporating long-term rehabilitation strategies to support recovery, restore movement, and reduce the risk of recurrence. He works collaboratively with clients to ensure they understand their condition and feel confident in their rehabilitation journey. Ali's practice is defined by clinical precision, thoughtful assessment, and a commitment to evidence-based care.
