PROFILE

Natasha Smith is an experienced Senior Neurological Physiotherapist at Physio Matters, with a strong background in treating complex neurological conditions and major trauma in acute and rehabilitation settings. She holds a BSc (Hons) in Physiotherapy from Manchester Metropolitan University.

Natasha brings over six years of clinical experience from Salford Royal Hospital, where she supported patients in regaining independence, returning to work, and re-engaging in meaningful activities.

She also contributed to the Major Trauma Enhanced Rehabilitation Service at the Manchester Institute of Health and Performance, where she utilised advanced equipment including antigravity treadmills, hydrotherapy facilities, and a fully equipped gym. Natasha is committed to delivering high standards of care, helping clients return to previous activities and discover new ones to maintain physical progress and symptom relief after complex polytrauma.
